

No Arrest in Mall Robbery

Monday, 28 June 2010 09:00

Still no arrest in an apparent armed robbery on Friday at the mall in La Crosse. Cops says a 65 year old woman claimed she was held up by a guy wearing a motorcycle helmet early on Friday afternoon as she was leaving the mall. Apparently no witnesses to the crime, no video surveillance and no sign of the robber who just happened to pick a victim carrying over a thousand dollars in cash. Woman told police the only person who knew she'd be carrying that kind of cash is a relative.
