

A medical examiner says the man found dead in the Mississippi River Saturday drowned accidentally. The Office of LaCrosse County Medical Examiners announced the ruling this morning.

Police found the body of 61 year old Lynn Johannes of La Crescent in the Bluff Slough area.

La Crosse Police said Johannes was fishing in the area, a back water area off the Mississippi River.