

One of the La Crosse School District's core values will be brought to the lime light this fall. Superintendent, Randy Nelson shares what that is.

\(Click for Audio\)

The inspiration behind the project came from Richard Davidson, a UW-Madison psychology and psychiatry professor and brain researcher. He says he has found that those who practice compassion have measurably healthier brains and generally, a happier outlook on life.