

It should be an interesting 4 day bass fishing tournament for North Carolina's, Hank Cherry. He is entered in the Bassmasters Elite event in La Crosse next week and is the current rookie of the year. But for a man that's never been to Wisconsin? He gave us his outlook.

\(Click for Audio\)

Cherry says he has talked to some of the 100 pro's that will be here next week and has done a lot of homework on the area. All will be gunning for the $100 thousand check and trip to the Bassmasters Classic next year. The anglers will start rolling into the area this weekend.