

Council Committee Considers Moratorium Tonight

Tuesday, 02 July 2013 10:17

Rental growth would likely slow under a proposal that gets a once-over by a La Crosse council committee tonight. Bob Seaquist chairs the committee that tackles a proposed moratorium on converting single family homes to rental properties. No minor malady for the city, says Seaquist

\(Click for Audio\)

Seaquist says a rash of rental conversions are also depleting already low property values in owner occupied homes.