

A bridge construction site between Wisconsin and Minnesota has been turned into a search and rescue command center this morning.

\(Click for Audio\)

Winona County Sheriff Dave Brand tell us that over 15 boats are in the channel looking for the missing Wisconsin man. Specialized dive teams are on the way to search the 50x20 tug boat. The river has been shut down from the lock and dam to the south.