

Charles Running for 95th Assembly Seat

Tuesday, 06 July 2010 10:40

And then there were two. Retired commercial building inspector Nick Charles says he's running for assembly in Wisconsin in the district currently held by democrat Jennifer Shilling. The La Crosse native says he just felt it was time to tackle the daunting task of unseating the popular incumbent who hasn't had an opponent in eight years. Charles joins fellow republican Julian Bradley in the race. Bradley announced his campaign for the 95th district several weeks ago.