

Police Investigate Stabbing, Unsure it Happened

Monday, 15 July 2013 11:46

Although La Crosse police are looking for a man that may have stabbed a woman in her apartment, they also wonder whether the stabbing happened at all. The 26 year-old woman says she was hanging out with a couple of strangers in her apartment late at night when the man tried to force her to have sex and then sliced her face open during a struggle. Problem is, the woman keeps changing her story about the stabbing and, police say, her face kind of looks like she did the job herself. But, for now, the official wanted man is a tall, skinny, hispanic 30 year-old.
