

New Neighborhood Association Organizes Tonight

Monday, 15 July 2013 11:48

Another neighborhood association is cooking in La Crosse. Tonight is the first meeting of the newly forming Weigent-Hogan neighborhood association on the city's near southside. Can't have too many associations, says city council member and Neighborhood Revitalization Commission chair, Sara Sullivan

\(Click for Audio\)

Weigent-Hogan would be the sixth neighborhood association in La Crosse and the first formed in a decade.