

\(Click for Audio\)

That was the sound at 8:07 this morning as students at Hamilton School in La Crosse went back to school. It's the start of year round school there and Superintendent of Schools Randy Nelson was on hand to watch the summer slide come to an end.

\(Click for Audio\)

Nelson says the district believes this will be a great benefit to the students and they will be monitoring students' progress closely over the course of the year. Students are in class for 45 days then take a 15 day break through the year.