

Climate change. It's a hot button issue that evokes a variety of responses.

For some, climate change means legal change. The I Will Act on Climate 27 state bus tour rolls through La Crosse today, motivating people to support the cause. Wisconsin Farmers Union Foundation President Darin Von Ruden talks about topics being brought up this afternoon.

\(Click for Audio\)

The bus will arrive in La Crosse for the event..... taking place at the Myrick Hixon Ecopark at 2. The bus is traveling to local communities directly affected by climate change. A statement from the group says they want to support farmers in finding ways to adapt to a changing and volatile climate.