

Kwik Trip figures to expand big on compressed natural gas. The company plans on having CNG stations in 26 spots by the end of the year in the tri-state area. Because it's a very viable fuel, says Kwik Trip superintendent of alternative fuels, Joel Hirschboeck.

Hirschboeck and the rest of the company held a CNG open house of sorts at the newly revamped station on fifth and Cass in La Crosse on Tuesday.