

The La Crosse School District hopes to open their new Charter High School in Logan High School by 2014. We asked Randy Nelson, district superintendent, what exactly the differences are between the two high schools.

\(Click for Audio\)

Nelson says to open the new school next year, the school board will have to approve a contract by November, and submit that contract to the DPI by December. The district is using a $175 thousand grant to kick start the new school, open to freshman and sophomores in the opening years.