

UW-L Foundation

Advancing philanthropy through service to our donors, campus and community

The UW-L Foundation has announced it will start the new school year with a new president. Mary Ann Gerrard will assume the duties of the Foundation's president Monday, September 9th.

Gerrard will leave her post as Special Assistant to the Chancellor for Legislative Affairs and Development for the UW Colleges and UW Extension to take over the Foundation post.

Gerrard replaces Al Trapp, who retires September 9th.
