

Conceal Carry Voted On In Monroe County

Thursday, 29 August 2013 09:41

---

The Monroe County Board voted last night to follow state law when it comes to concealed carry on county owned property. County Administrator, Cathy Schmitt says some concerns were raised before votes were taken.

\(Click for Audio\)

The board voted to not place conceal carry signs on county buildings and the board won't be prohibiting concealed carry in any county buildings except the courthouse and jail.