

State Senator, Jennifer Shilling is behind a new bill that would address numerous shortcomings in Governor Scott Walkers newly created statewide private school voucher program. Like the fact that voucher schools are not subject to state graduation standards are not required to be located in Wisconsin.

\(Click for Audio\)

Legislation is currently being drafted to address these issues and is expected to be ready for introduction before the start of the 2013-14 school year.