

Three Hurt In Early Sat Shooting

Saturday, 31 August 2013 13:41

Three people have been treated for gunshot wounds after a shooting incident at 1020 Farnam Street in La Crosse. One of them has been released from a hospital. The victims reportedly were shot in the abdomen and legs. City police are looking for a possible suspect, 33-year-old Almondo Baker of La Crosse, who lives at the site of the shootings. The incident happened just after 5 o'clock Saturday morning.