

A flag folded into a cross pattern was displayed on the UW-L campus Wednesday as part of a student group remembrance of 9-11. Chancellor Joe Gow included that in an email which discussed on campus remembrances. Seems as though he's receiving flak from that email.

\(Click for Audio\)

One email from a UW-L Alumni denounced pride for, support of, and acknowledgment.....that the individual even went to UW-L. Gow says he did what he was supposed to and followed the university's guideline to endorse any particular religion.