

The West Salem School District could be eyeing the design of a school building in Sparta for their next elementary school. That according to Superintendent, Troy Gunderson.

\(Click for Audio\)

Nothing set in stone yet but Gunderson says they are down to their final two building concepts. Day 2 of informational meetings takes place today at the Heider Center in West Salem.