

Ferry Street Home Hit By Weekend Fire

Sunday, 15 September 2013 21:08

La Crosse's second house fire in three days leaves a home on Ferry Street with moderate fire damage, and severe smoke damage. But, no one was hurt in Friday night's fire at the Daniel Klug home. Heavy smoke was reported at the rear of the house, and firefighters were on the scene less than two minutes after getting the call. The fire was doused quickly, and confined to just one section of the house.
