

If your son or daughter attends Winona State University and brought a hookah bong or e-cigarettes with them to move in day.....chances are they don't have them anymore. That's because a part time moratorium has been placed on both items. Dean of Students, Karen Johnson says both items fall into the smoke free campus rules.

\(Click for Audio\)

The campus has been tobacco free for four years now. And Johnson says more discussions will be held soon to determine if the moratorium will become a permanent thing.