

Despite a big grant coming to the La Crosse regional airport to secure a new non-stop destination route, it could be months before that happens. Airport manager, Clinton Torp says it will be that long to get the process in works to negotiate a plan for American Airlines to start a new non-stop route to the Dallas/Fort Worth airport. But the grant will be huge in making that happen

\(Click for Audio\)

The 750 thousand dollar grant, one of 25 given to regional airports around the nation, was announced on Monday.