

Pretty average Oktoberfest. That's the evaluation from Tri State ambulance in La Crosse who saw a slight drop in ambulance calls for the first Oktoberfest week-end over last year. Tom Tornstrom, from Tri-State, says many of those calls originated from the third street aid station. A handy little spot to get help, he says

\(Click for Audio\)

A couple hundred people managed to get all kinds of assistance from the third street aid station for the fest week-end. Also similar numbers to last year.