

One more public hearing will be held next week on the approximately $142 million Winona bridge project that will span the Mississippi River in downtown Winona by 2020.

MnDOT spokeswoman Kristin Kammüller.

\(Click for Audio\)

The hearing is October 17th at the Winona Armory. Construction could begin as early as July 2014.