

Just as La Crosse is working harder to deal with sub par housing, state lawmakers are on the verge of approving a bill that could give city hall fits. Proposed rules would mean an effective end to La Crosse's rental registration and inspection process. Quite a change

Democratic state senator Kathleen Vinehout. The senate is expected to cast a final vote on the rental bill soon. La Crosse's mayor Tim Kabat says dumping the city's ability to regulate rentals would be a disaster.