

Kind Continues To Gets Sides Talking

Sunday, 13 October 2013 18:19

Another week....and week of the partial government shutdown. Congressman Ron Kind says talks continued over the weekend.....some folks working for the government are getting paid..... and the history being made....is not good history.

\(Click for Audio\)

The Treasury Department says it will be unable to pay the government's bills unless the debt limit is increased by Thursday. The partial shutdown of government services has been in effect since October 1st.