

Build a new middle school on district owned land and move Northern Hills into the existing middle school.....buy or lease portable trailers to serve as temporary classrooms....or do nothing and continue to increase class sizes. Just some of the questions the Onalaska School District has included in an online survey. But there's more says Superintendent, Fran Finco.

\(Click for Audio\)

The school board is currently mulling over whether or not to hold a referendum in the Spring since the district's operating referendum will expire, creating a budget shortfall of about $2 million.