

Hospital Construction Almost Complete

Friday, 18 October 2013 08:23

Gundersen Health System broke ground on the new hospital expansion, which connects to the existing hospital, in January 2010, and is on track to begin caring for patients in the new space in January 2014. Almost opening time says Mason Quackenbush.

\(Click for Audio\)

The 500 thousand square foot expansion includes a new lobby, emergency services department, imaging, operating rooms, cath labs, pre and post surgical settings, a neonatal intensive care unit and private rooms for all patients.