

Former Pastor Goes To Prison For Life

Friday, 01 November 2013 10:59

A Monroe County jury has found a former pastor guilty on one count of sexual assault of a child as a persistent repeater and five counts of child enticement. 66 year old Michael Delaney of Tomah will spend the rest of his life in prison for sexually assaulting a child.

Delaney had been accused of engaging in sexual acts with a young boy, and showing him pornography at his home and in a semi truck.

Delaney pleaded guilty in 1983 to two felony counts of sexual abuse.
