

It's that time of year again when the blaze orange is airing out, sighting-in is underway and talk turns to plans for the upcoming gun deer season opener. The DNR's Keith Warnke says early licence numbers are up from last year already.

\(Click for Audio\)

Over 358 thousand licenses have been sold already...up 7 thousand from last year. A new recruitment process is also underway this year that could save you money on a 2014 license. Go to www.dnr.wi.gov type in deer for more information.