

Bike Share Study Delayed Until June

Tuesday, 19 November 2013 09:49

---

Long delay for a study on a bike sharing plan for the city of La Crosse. The consultant that was supposed to do the study can't get to it. So, it won't start until June. Still, likely a good idea for the city, says Matthew Christen, with the YMCA group partnering with the city on bike share planning

\(Click for Audio\)

Bike sharing is more like short-term renting with bikes set up at stations in various spots and able to get checked out with the swipe of a card.