

Garbage Rules Change In Onalaska

Friday, 13 December 2013 10:48

After 12 thousand garbage karts had been delivered to folks in Onalaska last weekend, the rules of the new system changed this week. City Engineer Jarrod Holter.

\(Click for Audio\)

City staff will now allow residents until April 2nd to make their choice in cart size. Residents will be receiving information in the mail on how to make a change in their cart size. Information will be mailed in January. The new garbage rules will still begin on January 6th.