

103 undergraduate students, 25 graduate degree students, and 4

associate degree students will be candidates for graduation at Viterbo University's winter commencement ceremony tomorrow in the Fine Arts Center Main Theatre. Among them, students in the new Master of Science in Mental Health Counseling program. Deborah Murray says it's a course that has been filling quickly.

\(Click for Audio\)

With school shootings, veterans coming back from doing service overseas and everyday life problems, Murray says she expects the class to remain full year after year now.