

Various agencies are offering open office times for community members to access the Healthcare Marketplace and will be providing certified application counselors to assist in the process. These events are open to all Wisconsin residents and you do not need to reside in that county to attend events there. Counselor Susan Silberschmidt says they've seen quite a few people so far.

\(Click for Audio\)

Sign up help continues this week in Buffalo, Clark, Jackson, La Crosse, Monroe, Trempealeau and Vernon Counties.