

Minus 4 at 10 this morning but the construction of a Northside school in La Crosse treads forward. Dan Deicher toured the Northside Elementary school this morning. He talked with Steve Horick with Fowler and Hammer.

\(Click for Audio\)

Over local 50 workers continue to develop a more modern looking school no matter the weather. Students in preschool through 5th grade will all be in the same building when construction is finished. Should be open by the fall. See the latest live construction by clicking the link below.

http://66.191.119.34/cgi-bin/encoder?USER=user&PWD=user&GET_STREAM