

Minutes after President Obama delivered his state of the union speech last night, republican and democrats were responding fast and furiously to the comments. One of those, Congressman Ron Kind.

\(Click for Audio\)

He says in this year of action.....he thinks Obama will seek opportunities to work with congress in a bipartisan fashion. Creating more jobs and strengthening the economy should be one and two says Kind.