

The Government By the People Act, is legislation co-sponsored by Congressman Ron Kind. The bill would allow candidates to run for office by relying on a large number of small donations from people back home. Kind says it includes a bit of shifting.

\(Click for Audio\)

Kind says the act would reduce Congress' dependence on big money campaign donors and help ordinary citizens get their voice heard. It was introduced on Wednesday.