

Over $4 million in cuts could be coming to the La Crosse School District is that amount over 5 years is not approved in April. That was learned Tuesday morning as district heads got together to discuss the upcoming referendum with the media. Human Resources Director, Steve Salerno says district employees know what's at stake.

\(Click for Audio\)

The referendum wouldn't raise residents' property taxes by a single cent. Two informational meetings have been set by the district. You can the dates and more at lacrosse schools dot org.