

Lieutenant Dan is coming back to La Crosse, and Huey Lewis is coming with him.

The lineup for this year's Freedom Fest at U-W-L's Memorial Field has been announced on the event's website. Actor Gary Sinise and his 'Lieutenant Dan Band' are returning to Freedom Fest for the first time since the very first benefit concert at the old stadium six years ago. Also headlining the show will be Huey Lewis and the News. The local band 'The Remainders' will open the show honoring veterans, scheduled for Saturday, June 14th.
