

A Monroe County inmate faces charges of disorderly conduct, harassment and assault by prisoners after he was accused of threatening and harassing another inmate throughout the night earlier this month. 20 year old Dalton Hintz of Marion, Wisconsin is accused of banging his cellmate's head against the wall, threatening to beat and sodomize him and he threw urine into another inmate's cell.

Hintz is already facing charges of bail jumping, assault and theft.