

The beer and wine supplies are loaded and some stores in Sparta are clearing cooler space for the beverages. But until this afternoon....the trucks will still sit idle. Even though a ballot measure asking for the city to allow beer and wine sales to occur in the city was approved Tuesday, 8 absentee ballots have yet to be counted. We asked City Clerk, Julie Hanson if a re-count is asked for, how fast would it happen.

\(Click for Audio\)

Hanson has been clerk for three years now and has never been through a re-count process. It's expected no matter how the ending vote turns out .