

Kind Calls for Compromise

Thursday, 04 November 2010 08:35

A divided congress now. Different agendas among democrats and Republicans. Neither probably willing to give much ground after yesterday's elections. What's the next move? La Crosse democratic congressman Ron Kind says it's time to come together and make compromise although he hasn't said where those compromises might be. Kind seemed to be the exception in holding on to his seat Tuesday amidst a wave of Republican challengers coming into office, flipping control of the US House to GOP control.