

Get Out Of Jail Free Card? NOT!

Tuesday, 01 February 2011 12:42

Part of being jailed is to rehabilitate and get back into society. Someone forgot to tell that to 56 year old Christopher Lehner of Winona. The Winona County Jail inmate is now wanted after he failed to return to the jail after a brief furlough.

Seems as though jail staff let Lehner go to a class at the Winona County Workforce Center a couple of weeks ago....problem is he never returned and now no one knows where he is. That brought about a charge of escape.

He was doing a year in jail for bouncing checks and forgery.....he'll do a lot more when he goes back home.....to jail. 5 years for felony escape.
