

UW-La Crosse picks a new football coach from close to home...

Joel Dettwiler, a Platteville graduate now at Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa, is the new head football coach for the Eagles.

Dettwiler was among four finalists who were interviewed on campus in the last two weeks. He was director of football operations at Platteville a few years ago. Dettwiler will succeed Larry Terry, who announced in November that he would step down as the Eagles' head coach.
