3 arrests have been made by Sparta and Tomah police in connection with an armed robbery that happened last week.

2 armed men wearing ski masks broke into a downtown Sparta apartment of a 22 year old female in the search for a safe that contained a firearm. After waving guns in the woman's face, the pair fled on foot with the safe to an awaiting car.

Arrested were 29 year old Bobby Ostrum of Necedah, 26 year old Donald Hage Jr. of Tomah and 18 year old Anthony Yenter of rural Tomah. All 3 are in the Monroe County jail and will make court appearances today. The item that was stolen was recovered.
