

Final Waterfront Presentation Tonight

Wednesday, 20 April 2011 11:49 -

Marinas? Fishing piers? Walking trails? All of that and more could become part of the new plan for La Crosse's riverfront. Tonight, the final recommended Port and Waterfront Plan Presentation in La Crosse from the Joint Board of Harbor Commissioners. The presentation will be held at the Black River Beach neighborhood center at 8:30. After the final public presentation, the plan will be finalized and submitted to the Joint Board of Harbor Commissioners first and then the city council and the county board for approval.
