

Now that the northside yard waste drop-off has shut down, the facelift on one of La Crosse's parks can begin in earnest. Veteran's Memorial off of Clinton is getting ready for big changes. Mostly expanding the athletic fields, says city parks boss, Steve Carlyon. He says the plan is to expand the current three soccer fields and add softball and little league baseball fields. The park will also get fishing piers and a new tree memorial to veterans. Carlyon expects the whole process to proceed over two or more years.
