

The special election for 95th District Assemblyman picks up another candidate.

Pump House executive administrator David Krump is the third Democrat to enter the primary to succeed Jennifer Shilling in the Assembly. Krump is promoting job creation in his campaign, as well as education and the environment. Jill Billings and Christine Clair entered the 95th District race earlier this week. No date has been set for the election.