

When Jill Billings gets seated as the next 95th state assembly woman in the state capitol.....she will see a very familiar face sitting across from her. Steve Doyle.....who she sits with on the Lacrosse County board. Doyle says having not one but two familiar faces in Madison now.....you should see an impact on this side of the state quite quickly.

Strangely enough.....all 3 are serving in Madison now.....all as the result of recall elections. They replaced the seats held by Senator Dan Kapanke, and Representative and now the state's administration secretary, Mike Huebsch.
