

Concealed Carry Permits...So Far So Good.

Wednesday, 16 November 2011 11:48 -

The Wisconsin Department of Justice has received over 37 thousand applications for concealed carry permits in the past two weeks.....and quirks so far?

Doug Dombrowski says some reasons some applications are being rejected include some out of state folks failing to enclose the required training affirmation forms and others entering incorrect information such as the applicants birth year.